

Aloysius James Gaudet

February 9, 1976 - January 5, 2024

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Aloysius James Gaudet at Norwood Care Facility, Edmonton on January 5th, 2024 after a courageous battle of complications from diabetes.

Aloysius is survived by his devoted, loving wife, Leah Gaudet, his parents Kenneth and Emily Gaudet, brother, Kenney Gaudet (Danielle Gaudet, William and James), mother-in-law Cynthia Goodyear (Bill Fieczere), father-in-law William Goodyear, brother-in-law Thane Goodyear (Lenore Benoit, Kyle, Cole, Caleb, Kailyn), especially close, niece Amberley White and nephew Trent White.

Also many devoted Aunts, Uncles, cousins and friends.

Aloysius is a traditional name meaning Famous Warrior, and true to his name, Wish fought his battle long and hard.

Even through his complicated illness, both Wish and Leah persevered in enjoying every day to its fullest, many of those years including their beloved dog named Boo.

For 28 years they shared memories of creativity, laughter, adventure and fun times.

'He held my hand until the end'.

He will be forever missed.

Always and forever my babe.

“ They met on the night of my bridal shower. It was love at first sight! The way Lee would light up just talking about Wish. They were best friends and loved each other like no other. Wish would enjoy being with all “the girls” when all of us were together and very loud. He was a wonderful person, super funny and kind. He was the love of Leah’s life and he will forever be cherished and remembered.

“ I just wanted to reach out and let you know that we, Sam, Linda, Rhonda and Jill are thinking about you during this difficult time. Aloysius was a strong young man and he lived up to his name sake as a “ famous warrior”. Wish fought a hard battle for a long time. He’s at peace now. Our prayers and thoughts are with you and your family during this difficult time.

“ Wish and Lee were best friends. He was always sitting with the girls quietly, with the occasional funny comment or smirk. My heart breaks he left his best friend, but my heart is also happy he is now at peace running freely with his Boo. All my Love to Lee and the family. Draw strength on your surrounding support to get to through this difficult time. Merc
