

Christopher Lyle Blackmore

April 19, 1964 - May 23, 2025

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Christopher Lyle Blackmore on May 23, 2025, in Edmonton, Alberta, at the age of 61.

Chris was born on April 19, 1964, in Edmonton, Alberta, to parents Elsie Faith Blackmore and Milton Lyle Blackmore. He grew up alongside his brother, Derrick Blackmore, whom he was very close.

Chris was a proud father to his two children, Alexander Lyle Blackmore and Katherine Lois Robins, whom he shared with Verna Vilon. He was also a loving grandpa to his nieces, Peyton Robins and Linnea Robins, all of whom he cherished deeply.

After completing his education at Fairview College in Alberta, Chris became a certified Journeyman Partsman. He built a successful career with Risley Equipment in Grande Prairie, where he was respected for his dedication and strong work ethic.

Chris had a deep appreciation for the outdoors. He found joy in fishing, camping, and spending time in nature. A lover of rural, small-town life, Chris was known for his easygoing personality, keen interest in meeting new people, and his love for storytelling. Whether sharing tales from his own life or simply people-watching from his favorite spots, Chris had a gift for connecting with others.

Despite the challenges he faced throughout life, Chris was rarely seen without a smile. His resilience, kindness, and sense of humor will be remembered fondly by all who knew him.

Chris's memory will live on in the hearts of his family, friends, and all those who were lucky enough to know him.
