“ Forever in my memory will be our many many family get togethers and family meals at our house....you loved playing with Ryan and Aaron's dinky cars... when it was time to leave we had to bribe you with a dinky to get you to go...we started with a milk crate full and by the time you were about 6 I think you had us cleaned out...you proudly displayed them all on the ledge in g-ma's basement....fly high sweet boy ...forever in our hearts...

“ I remember one day me, mama, Tay and Huntyr went to the ovens. It was great day spent exploring and on our way home we stopped at a few yard sales. One place we stopped Huntyr talked to the man who was very proud to share the stories behind the items he was selling. Huntyr chatted and listened to the man who was also sick and terminal. It seemed to make the man holding the yard sale very happy, and Huntyr as well. Everytime I drive by that place where the yard sale was I think of this day. I hope it can still bring a smile to my face now, that you are no longer here my sweet nephew. You or your heart will never be forgotten Huntyr. The world is dimmer with you not in it.
