

Jack Letch

June 1, 1934 - February 18, 2024

Jack was born in Montreal Quebec and lived in several cities in Canada with his parents before settling in Edmonton for high school. After High school he became an apprentice printer at the Edmonton Journal, before joining the RCAF in Vancouver. Jack was a member of the peacekeeping force in Italy and Egypt and after that was transferred to Gimli Manitoba where he met and married his wife Dolores in 1959. While in the air force, Jack and his family lived in Quebec, Ontario, Manitoba, Germany and finally Edmonton where Jack retired from the Military in 1978. Jack then began working for Canada Post as a millwright and later as an electrician and retired for a second time in 1992.

Jack had a lifelong passion for cars, motorcycles, and dogs. He was mechanically inclined, with a talent for small engine repair. He loved to garden, read, and always kept up with the latest technology.

Jack is survived by his loving wife of 65 years Dolores, children Valerie (Ken), Judy (Jeff), and Alfred (Sue), grandchildren, Nicholas, David, Kristen, Curtis, Robert, Kerry, and Kim, and great-grandchildren, Olivia and Aksel. He will be greatly missed.
