

John Tywoniuk

July 7, 1951 - April 14, 2024

John Tywoniuk 1951-2024. John will be deeply missed by his family and friends. He will be remembered as a father, brother, grandfather and storyteller. John is now free from the hardship of illness. Love you lots John.

Tribute Wall

GR

“ I just saw this about John. My name is Gail Ross and I live in Las Vegas. I was very good friends with John and Bill and was close to him before and after his pool accident. I am so very sorry for your loss and will always have such fond memories of hanging out with the Outlaws. I ended up working for the owner of the team, Ralph Englestead for a time. Please give Bill my condolences. Blessings to you all.

Gail Ross Roybal - November 02, 2024 at 11:42 PM

DT

“ If you would like to know more about his life - John Maurice Tywoniuk, please go to Fragrancefreeliving.com He was very special to me, I loved him lots, I will miss you, all our talks about your life experiences and getting you stem cell treatment, your dream not to have a physical disability anymore that we were going to do together, you always had a good attitude, tried not to let things bother you, your mental health was always good, considering what a hard life you had. I will cherish the memories of all the time we spent together and your most important personal belongings that meant so much to you, entrusted to me to take care of, knowing that they are in good hands. All your photo albums containing your whole life and the most important thing, your son (Cody), also all the Reno Nevada and Las Vegas Hockey History and memories including drag racing and hockey trophies from Canada. This is from your younger brother - David Tywoniuk).

David Tywoniuk - June 06, 2024 at 07:09 PM

CS

John was a great guy with big dreams....sadly his physical injuries caused him too much pain to enjoy his dreams to the fullest. Having the pleasure in his younger years to share part of his life with him will always be remembered. Rest in peace John.

Cheryl Shaw - June 11, 2024 at 01:00 AM