

Kent Button

January 30, 1954 - July 4, 2024

Vernon “Kent” Button suddenly passed away on July 4th, 2024 at the age of 70, in his place of residence, Edmonton Alberta. Kent is survived by his sisters, Rae Handspiker (Vern Mitchell), Dawn Quick (Phil Quick) and brother Troy McClure (Belinda McClure) two children Tara and Keith, along with numerous nieces and nephews he was close to.

Kent was predeceased by his parents, Vern Button, Lois and George McClure, and his brother Greg Button.

Kent true passion in life was music, writing, singing and playing multiple instruments. Kent was his happiest when entertaining others, either by music or his comedian side. One could also say he was a bit of a grease monkey, loved tinkering on his cars and motorcycles. Kent was very artistic, and it showed through his woodworking, you can see the love he put in every piece he created. Kent had a gentle spirit and will be missed by all who new him.

A private family celebration of Kent’s life will be held during September long weekend, 2024.
