

Lori Ann Young

April 24, 1970 - March 15, 2026

It is with heavy hearts that we announce the passing of Lori Ann Young on March 15, 2026, at the age of 55.

Lori was born on April 24, 1970, in Newfoundland, a place that helped shape her lifelong love of the ocean. That connection stayed with her always and was often reflected in her writing—one of her greatest passions. Through her words, Lori expressed the beauty, depth, and emotion she saw in the world around her.

She leaves behind her loving parents, Valerie and Patrick Young, who will forever cherish her memory. Lori is also survived by her sister, Annette Brennan (Young), and her brother, Fabian Young. She is reunited in memory with her brother Quentin Young, who passed before her. She will be fondly remembered by her nieces and nephews: Heather, Steven, Shelbie, and Sarah.

Lori was a mother to her two children, Terrilyn Wilson (Young) and Tyler Young. She was a grandmother to Kayden Paradis Young, Silas, Jayce, and Parker Wilson.

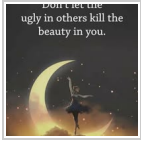

Lori will be remembered for her kind heart, her creative spirit, and her deep love for the ocean. Whether walking along the shore or enjoying the tranquility of nature, she felt most at peace surrounded by the natural world. She also cherished animals, finding comfort and companionship in their presence.

In accordance with her wishes, cremation has taken place.

A celebration of Lori's life will be held this summer in Newfoundland, with family and friends.

She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her.
