“ We always said we were kindred spirits. I'm so sad I never got to see you thrive the way you wanted. Or vice versa. It was always us talking about pain that we had going on but the things that made us so beautiful is that we were so strong and always willing to help each other through it. And help others. You always had such positive things to say, just like me. Never strayed away from wanting to help, just like me. I'm so beyond proud of all the effort you put in to yourself everyday. You truly were my kindred spirit and I'm so proud to know that and to have known you. I love you, for always and for ever my darling💕 my strong super girl💕

“ Morgan was my oldest cousin, and also like a big sister to me. She taught me so many things ! I loved going to 4-H & spending time on the farm with her. She taught me to dance, lol & we had many inside jokes !
I'm so glad she got to meet “the three amigos” . She made so many people happy & was there for them when they were feeling down !
I'm gonna miss you so much , wait I already do . I love you bunches !
