

Robert Lyka

August 16, 1938 - January 18, 2024

Robert grew up on a farm near Thorsby and was the youngest of 11 children. He married Carol in 1959 and moved to Edmonton where he lived in the same house for 59 years. He worked in Edmonton and the majority of his career was with Canada Agriculture from which he retired in 1997. Throughout his life, Robert enjoyed camping with his family, working in his workshop and was always busy tinkering about. Robert will be sorely missed by his family and friends.

Robert is survived by Carol, his loving wife of 64 years. He is sadly missed by his son Gregg, daughter Wendy and son-in-law Brian.

Tribute Wall

DL

“ Uncle Bob was more like a brother to me than an uncle. ”

David Lyka - January 26, 2024 at 10:12 AM

ML

My first memories of Uncle Bob (and Carol) was how they accepted me into the family and their home. When his brother (Dave's dad) died, Bob became our handyman, mentor, and friend. He was always willing to help us, and sometimes - just listen. Our time together is priceless and won't be forgotten.

MARLENE LYKA - January 26, 2024 at 01:16 PM