

Rosemary (Rose) Strandlund

May 8, 1937 - April 8, 2026

It is with deep sadness that we announce the passing of Rosemary (Rose) Dietlind Strandlund (nee Schnur) of Stony Plain at the age of 88 on April 8, 2026 in Edmonton, Alberta.

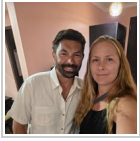

Rose was born on May 8, 1937 in Edmonton, to parents Hubert and Helen Schnur - she was the oldest of their four children. Rose married Ken in 1958. Together, they raised their four sons in Hinton, where they lived for many years. Rose and Ken later moved to Stony Plain where she lived out the remainder of her years enjoying time spent with family, friends, and crafting.

Rose will be dearly missed by her three sons: Barry (Kathy) of Athabasca , Brian (Wendy) of Medicine Hat and Rick (Tanya) of Hinton; one brother Gerry (Debbie) of Kamloops; ten grandchildren: Tyra (Trevor), Kent (Brandy), Kelly, Alyssia (Kevin), Casandra (Andrew), Courtney, Marissa (Dan), Mitchell, Helaina, and Daphna; twelve great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Rose was pre-deceased by her husband Ken, son Terry, father Hubert, mother Helen, step-mother Erna, sister Willie, brother Frank, and brother-in-law Cliff.

A celebration of life will be held at a later date.

“ I send my most heartfelt condolences to Rose's family and friends. I met Rose several years ago as a client of my cleaning service. She was so easy to talk to, and reminds me still that connecting with people face to face is so important and fulfilling. Rose gave me a few recipe cards back then, and with those I made my first pickles ever!
