

Stephanie Elizabeth Bebensee

February 8, 1962 - March 17, 2026

Surrounded by family, Stephanie Bebensee passed away peacefully on March 17, 2026 after a very short and intense bout of cancer.

She was born in Wallaceburg, Ontario on February 8, 1962. She was predeceased by her parents, Lyle and Muriel Bebensee. She is survived by her sister, Jane Bebensee and Brother-in-Law, Bill Crockett, cherished nephew Glen Crockett and partner Jane, and beloved niece, Beth McAteer and husband Scott. She is also survived by her special Auntie Elaine Bebensee, many cousins, and friends.

Stephanie carried a creative spirit throughout her life, finding joy in music, good food, writing, and the arts. She also had a profound love of animals, especially horses and dogs. She was known for her nurturing nature and intuition. Over the years, her pursuits reflected her wide-ranging interests, including fashion, esthetics, horse care, and caretaking.

Fiercely independent, she followed her own path with determination and resilience, and in later years, found comfort in the Christian faith and Indigenous spiritual practises. At the time of her death, she was working hard to improve her health with the support of those around her. We were all proud of her!

Stephanie was deeply loved by her family, and she loved them back! Though her illness took her swiftly, her strength and spirit remained throughout. She will be remembered for her resilience and the creativity she brought into the world.

There will be a Celebration of Stephanie's life at a later date.
